5. Funding obtained

2015

World bank Trust fund for Statistical Capacity building (TFSCB) award

2017

World bank Trust fund for Statistical Capacity building (TFSCB) award

2018

University of Pretoria research development program (RDP) award

National Research Foundation (NRF) of South Africa: Teaching development grant (TDG) award (Grant numbers: 123 and 110117)

2023

Research grant (OFP) at KAUST award for “A Bayesian computing framework for precision medicine”.

2024

International Biometrics Society and International Statistical Institute young ambassador travel grant

6. Teaching activities

I have been involved in teaching in higher education since 2012 and obtained my Higher Education Teaching Certificate from Harvard University, USA in 2022. I have presented courses from first year level to PhD level as well as to scientists at public institutes like the CDC, USA.

I was awarded the Department of Statistics Teaching Award at The University of Pretoria in 2017.

A compressed and elaborated teaching portfolio is available:

<https://github.com/JanetVN1201/Documents>.

6.1. Courses presented (Summary)

Course	Level (e.g. second year, Masters)	Self developed (Yes or No)
Bayesian analysis	Postgraduate	Yes
Computational Statistics	Postgraduate	No
Biostatistics	1 st year, Honours	Yes
Mathematical Statistics	1 st and 2 nd year	Yes
Statistics	3rd year	Yes
Research methodology	Honours	Yes
SAS and R training	Honours, Masters	Yes

7 Awards and scientific/scholarly recognition

2008

- University of Pretoria Undergraduate Achievement Bursary

2009

- University of Pretoria Undergraduate Achievement Bursary
- Golden Key membership

2011

- University of Pretoria Postgraduate Achievement Bursary
- University of Pretoria Academic Honorary colours
- STATOMET bursary award

2012

- University of Pretoria Academic Honorary colours
- STATOMET bursary award
- SASA students project competition – 4th place
- African Bank award for the top achiever in the BSc(Hons) program
- Blue Stallion award for contribution of scientific merit

2013

- University of Pretoria Academic Honorary colours
- STATOMET prize for the most exceptional student in the Magister program of the Department of Statistics
- World Bank Fund prize for participation in the 59th World Statistics Congress in Hong Kong in 2013

2014

- University of Pretoria Research Support bursary

2015

- World Bank Fund award for participation in the 60th World Statistics Congress in Brazil
- Best doctoral presentation at the South African Statistical Association conference

2016

- University of Pretoria Postgraduate Achievement bursary

2017

- University of Pretoria Teaching award for excellence in teaching
- University of Pretoria incentive award for being the youngest PhD Mathematical Statistics graduate

2018

- International Society for Bayesian Analysis Travel Award.

2024

- International Biometrics Society Young Ambassador Award.
